

Capital Pups Rules & Code of Conduct 2025

I. General Code Of Conduct

- All Capital Pups spaces—online and in person—are governed by respect, consent, and safety.
- You must be 18+ to participate in any Capital Pups event or online community.
- No illegal activity under Ontario or Quebec law.
- No bullying, harassment, or insults.
- No intrusive jokes or comments based on identity or kinks.

II. In-Person Code of Conduct

1. Consent & Behavior

- Never assume it's okay to touch, flirt, or play with someone—ask first.
- No means no. This applies to physical touch and verbal communication.
- Touching specific gear (collars, locks, tails, etc.) requires explicit permission.
- Do not play while impaired by drugs, alcohol, or exhaustion.
- Don't intrude on others' scenes—respect open vs. closed doors.

2. Safewords and Signals

- Use the safewords: Green (Continue), Yellow (Pause/adjust), Red (Stop immediately)
- Non-verbal safeword: Tap Tap Tap = "Yellow"
- All play must stop immediately if someone uses "Red" or "Safeword".

5. Before & During Events

- Let new attendees know what to expect—no surprises.
- Talk to your partners beforehand about boundaries.
- Respect designated play/non-play areas.
- Only engage in play in designated areas.
- Ask before engaging in rough activities or taking/uploading photos.
- Handle disagreements privately and respectfully.
- Check in with partners after the event.

III. Online Code of Conduct

1. General Rules

- No spamming or posting duplicate/malicious content.
- No malware or copyrighted material without permission.
- No unsolicited advertising, unless permitted (e.g., own sales, vendor info, relevant links).
- Ads must not disrupt conversation and should be pet play-related.

2. Media and Content Guidelines

- Do not post private content without consent.
- AI-generated content is not allowed.
- Political and religious discussion is limited to #Serious-Talk.
- No discussion or depictions of suicide/self-harm (reach out privately for support).
- Prohibited: blood, scat, bestiality, cutting, rape, assault, sexual activity involving minors*.

* This does not mean ABDL; however, art/animation depicting an anthropomorphic being who could be interpreted as a minor is prohibited.

V. Roles & Responsibilities

Board Members

- Can remove someone from events
- Handle feedback, policy, and inter-community relationships
- Decide on permanent bans with a majority vote

Dungeon Masters

- Can interrupt or stop scenes and remove participants
- Final say during events
- Ensure safety of equipment and play areas

Hosts

- Can set venue-specific rules and remove people
- Can permanently ban from venues they control
- Ensure venue safety and accessibility

Moderators

- Manage online spaces: remove posts, disable comments, temporary bans (12 hrs–7 days)
- Cannot permanently ban or edit posts
- Escalate serious issues to the board

VI. Enforcement

Offense	Consequence
Minor issue	Verbal/Written Warning
1st offense	24-hour Temporary Ban
2nd offense	7-day Temporary Ban
3rd offense	Board review for possible suspension or permanent ban

- In the event of an incident involving multiple people, everyone involved will be temporarily banned for 24 hours, regardless of who started it or who was right or wrong.